

ALEXANDRIA.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 24

AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION.—We conclude, to-day, the record of the proceedings of the Agricultural Convention lately held in Richmond. We need not say how ardently we hope that great good may result from the meeting of so many intelligent and influential farmers and citizens. They have shown how deeply they are interested in the work of restoring the fortunes and reviving the prosperity of the old State—now dearer than ever to every true-hearted Virginian. Discarding politics they have turned their attention to the material interests of their own homes.—The right direction has been given—opinions may differ as to some of the means most proper to be used—but all are united in applying the best means possible that can be devised.

REPORT ABOUT JOHN SURREY.—A telegram by the cable brings a report that John Surrey, charged with being concerned, as an accomplice, in the murder of President Lincoln, has been found serving in the ranks of the Papal Zouaves. He was enrolled, we are told, under the name of John Watson, and was arrested on the demand of Gen. King, the U. S. Minister. After the arrest, and whilst he was being escorted to prison, he escaped from his guard into the territory of the Kingdom of Italy.—The Italian authorities are reported to be on the alert to secure his recapture.

The Baltimore Gazette speaking of recent newspaper reports concerning the situation of Mr. Jefferson Davis, in his prison at Fortress Monroe says: "The fitting up of Mr. Davis's quarters consisted in removing the iron gratings from the doors and substituting wooden ones, in whitewashing the walls, in painting some very filthy wood-work, and in mending broken windows. The complete 'and elaborate' cuisine auxiliaries" at Mr. Davis's command are comprehended in a very small kitchen in the yard adjoining his quarters, and the 'liberal supplies' allowed him are the rations of a private soldier, and such little luxuries as can be purchased for eighteen dollars a month, the latter addition to his 'liberal supplies' being granted when he was in bad health on the recommendation of the surgeon of the post. During the past summer the surgeon was permitted to buy ice for the prisoner with funds placed in his hands by Mr. Davis's friends. We state simple facts, and at present refrain from comments."

Dr. Harris, in his letter accompanying the mortuary report of New York city, says: "The saving effect of thorough disinfection will never be doubted by physicians who have watched the behavior of the epidemic in New York. Deep as the mysteries of cholera infection and its epidemics are, the fact is indisputably established that by chemistry and cleaning its pestilential poison can be destroyed. And as cholera infection can survive a winter of storms and frost, and again be excited into epidemic activity, it would be criminal folly to relax the watchfulness and exact methods by which, by God's blessing, our cities have been so far saved."

The Washington Republican says: "The President is necessarily engaged upon important public matters preparatory to the early assembling of Congress, and will have no time, until after the meeting of that body, to give the slightest attention to applicants for office. All such matters are referred to the heads of the different Departments."

People, "in this section," speak of the stagnation of trade. The same complaint is made elsewhere. The Chicago, Cincinnati and other Western journals speak quite despondingly as regards trade and trade prospects out there. "Nothing doing" is the universal remark. Nobody likes to trust the future any more than can be helped.

The Prince Georgian says:—"Mr. George Cuttle, of Baltimore, has purchased the large estate of Basil D. Spaulding, Esq., of Charles County, 20 miles from Washington City, containing some 3,000 acres, with good improvements, for the sum of $20,000 cash. This purchase includes his mills and water-power.

Repentant sinners," are sending back "money," which they admit was unjustly "abstracted" during the war, from the Treasury, but we hear of none of them sending back books, pictures, furniture, &c., &c.

Our abstracts of the proceedings of the Virginia Agricultural Convention, have mostly been copied from the Richmond Dispatch.

Several communications on miscellaneous subjects are on file, for insertion next week.

GOLD.

NEW YORK, November 24.—Gold, 139½.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the times."

The Retrenchment Committee of Congress, has been busily engaged lately investigating the cotton frauds. The investigation has the effect of implicating parties occupying high and influential positions under the Government, with these frauds. The committee has made some astonishing developments in this regard. A great deal of fraud, more than at first supposed, has been practised upon the Government and citizens of the South by the cotton agents.

Mr. Tripp, well known in the city of Buffalo and throughout Canada as the "Original Oil Man," died suddenly from congestion of the brain a few days since in New Orleans, Louisiana. The death of Mr. Tripp is another illustration of the manner in which men of genius and the original discoverers or inventors of any important measures that are of vast benefit to the public at large, are treated by fickle fortune. He died very poor.

Some excitement has been caused at Chicago by the discovery of a family actually suffering from starvation. The family, named Morris, consists of the husband, now in jail, the wife, who is a blind invalid, and a very reduced almost to a skeleton. The wife claims that her name is Morrissey, and that she is a sister of John Morrissey, member of Congress elect from New York city, to whom she has applied for aid. The case is a very sad one.

In reply to a question as to the rental value of certain property in New York, the Journal of Commerce incidentally remarks "that there is no surer method to depreciate the value of property than to ask an exorbitant sum for its use. Whole streets in New York have been almost depopulated in changes of business growing out of no other cause than the exactions of landlords."

The National Convention of the Grand Army of the Republic has decided that the proceedings shall be made public. Resolutions were adopted denouncing treason; demanding that married U. S. soldiers and sailors be appointed to office, when found capable; and that the claims of the orphans and widows of deceased soldiers and sailors shall be promptly adjusted.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Post states that a Cabinet meeting was held on Thursday last at which important business relative to Mexico was transacted. Despatches were subsequently sent in cypher to General Sherman and Minister Campbell. Recent despatches from Paris are said to complicate the Mexican question.

The Governor and State officers of California have protested against the recent appointment of John Bigler as Assessor of Internal Revenue at Sacramento, and ask the President to withdraw the appointment. The objections urged against Mr. Bigler are that the appointment is distasteful to Union men and that none but "rebels" will serve under him.

The coal trade in Pennsylvania is more prostrated at the present than at any time this season. There appears to be very little inquiry for coal, and the greater portion sent from the mines to Philadelphia remains upon the wharves. Very few new orders are now received, while many of the old ones are daily cancelled.

Intelligence from Russia, our rival in the production of grain, shows that the crops in the neighborhood of Odessa are very full, and that there is a large quantity more than usual for shipment. As Russia supplies Europe with grain in part, and sells lower than we can, it follows that there will be but little demand upon the United States for breadstuffs next year.

About 4 o'clock last Tuesday morning a meteor, lighting the whole heavens, was seen in the vicinity of Rome, Georgia, moving southwesterly. It appeared like a fire ball as large as the sun. It exploded apparently ten miles off with a tremendous report, like that of a forty-pound cannon, that shook the earth and made the windows rattle.

Dr. George B. Peters, who killed Major Gen. Van Dorn, in 1863, and James O. Lusby, Esq., of Council Bend, Arkansas, met near that place on Monday, the 12th, when an affray ensued, in which the latter received a cut in the neck, the result of which, it is feared, will prove fatal.

Captain Jourdan, of the New York police, arrested W. A. Babcock, on Sunday, on a charge of having sold $45,000 worth of bonds, the property of Mr. Lord, to Frank Hellon, the Wall street broker, who was recently arrested and discharged, but is now again in custody.

The centenary or hundredth year jubilee of Methodism in the United States is nearly ended. The Methodist denomination claims 20,000 churches, and during the centenary festival it is supposed that at least one meeting has been held in every church edifice.

Treasurer Spinner yesterday received a communication from Louisville, Kentucky, enclosing one hundred dollars, which the writer, who signs himself "Repentant," says, justly belongs to the Government.

Despatches received at Montreal from England by the Governor General state that the possibility of trouble with the U. S. readers an increase of vigilance indispensable on the part of the Canadian authorities.

Andrew McCullum, a sugar planter of Louisiana, who went to Brazil with a view to emigration, has returned, and pronounces against it, as unquitable and less favorable to the Southerner than his own country.

During the past year the postal service in the eleven seceded States has nearly paid for itself, and netted a profit, owing chiefly to competition and the low rates at which contracts were taken.

Admiral Semmes, of the late Confederate Navy, has accepted the Chair of Professor of Moral Philosophy and English Literature in the Louisiana State Seminary, at Alexandria, Louisiana.

The New York Chamber of Commerce adopted on Thursday last a resolution recommending the abolishment of the Government tax on cotton. A memorial to that effect is to be sent to Congress.

The packet ship Mercury, left Havre with 452 passengers, of whom thirty-four died on the passage, mostly Germans. The disease is not stated. The ship is now at quarantine below New York.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

In Rockbridge county, last week, the carriage of Dr. James Watson, containing his wife and family, was met in the road by another carriage driven by a negro man, who purposely drove against Dr. W.'s vehicle, breaking it and endangering the lives of those in it. Dr. W. followed the driver, and firing at him as he ran, the ball took effect, instantly killing the negro man. Dr. W. gave himself up, and was held to bail in $1,000.

On one day of last week, several negro men employed in a tobacco factory in Danville, poisoned themselves by drinking of a preparation used to flavor tobacco, known as the oil of mirbane. They being ignorant of its poisonous quality, got to tasting pretty freely of it, and in a few hours every one was prostrated from its effects. Two of the men died.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Virginia Central Railroad, a proposition to subscribe to the stock of the Tredgar Iron Company elicited a lively debate, and was withdrawn; but one favoring a change in the charter, so as to authorize a purchase, if necessary, of the Ohio and Covington road, was passed.

The negotiations between the James River and Kanawha Canal and the French Company, appear to have reached a point beyond which they can go no further. Col. Ellis, the President of the Company, does not think that the consummation wished for is any nearer than it was six months ago.

The fields of growing grain in the Valley present an unusually fine appearance. The wheat has come up well.

DISCHARGE OF PRISONERS.—It will be recollected that some time ago four citizens of South Carolina were arrested by command of Gen. Sickles, and having been tried by a military court, under the orders of that officer, were sentenced to death. The sentence was commuted by the President to imprisonment for life, and the prisoners having been first dispatched to the Dry Tortugas, in order to evade a writ of habeas corpus, were eventually incarcerated in Fort Delaware. Here they were demanded by the civil authority, under a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Hall, the District Judge of the U. S. for the district of Delaware. The mandate of his court was obeyed; the prisoners were brought before him, and after a patient hearing of the case, they were discharged, on the express ground that "according to the law of the land the prisoners ought not to and cannot be held under the commuted sentence of this military commission, and that they be discharged."—Balt. Sun.

On Tuesday night, the 20th inst. near Bladensburg, Md., a party of persons, black and white, were engaged in husking corn, when a difficulty ensued between a young white man named Bridewell and a negro man named Wilson. In a scuffle between them, the negro got the white man down, and fearing for his life, the latter drew a pistol and fired, killing the negro. A jury of inquest, rendered a verdict of "Justifiable Homicide." Young Bridewell yesterday gave himself up.

LETTER FROM HANOVER COUNTY, VA.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
HANOVER COUNTY, Nov. 23.—Our farmers are rapidly closing their year's labors, by housing corn, vegetables, roots, cattle, sheep, hogs, &c., for approaching winter. The crops of corn, oats, and rye have been a full average per acre. Indeed, where the crops of corn have been well worked, they are superb. Of its abundance, an idea may be formed from the fact, that corn brought at a public sale, a few days ago, only 63 cents per bushel, on a credit of nine months.

More wheat has been sown this fall than for several years past; and most of our farmers have secured fertilizers.

The question of labor still is one of great interest. Last year the negro was willing to work only for a portion of the crop. This year he desires to live to himself, and work by the day, just when, where, and as he pleases.—They are as polite, respectful, and obliging as they formerly were, but they are becoming more and more secluded, and find a greater interest in their own society, meetings, &c., than they do in associating, as formerly, with the whites. They have never been as badly off, as they are in the slavery of freedom!

It is gratifying to see the old Gazette advocating the interests of the Old Dominion with such persistent earnestness. It has occurred to the writer that for the present the great object of Virginia should be, to complete the Canal and Central Railroad to the Ohio. As State works they would in ten years extinguish the debt of the Commonwealth. Why should not this be done? Every day's delay is so much lost.

If our young men would devote their attention to farming, they would find it the most healthful, independent and profitable work they can do. Seventy-five acres are enough. Fifty five cleared and divided into five lots of ten acres each, and one of five, would make a beautiful and profitable farm—the small lot to be devoted to fruits and vegetables.

Col. H. P. Jones, the proprietor and principal of Hanover Academy, employs white labor. He has two negroes, one of whom is worth any two negroes I ever saw. The Colonel has a fine school, and is the best of teachers.

The Comptroller of Georgia is puzzled to know how to collect the taxes from negroes. They refuse to pay, change their names and residences, and wander about the State to avoid the tax-gatherer. The law provides no remedy.

Mr. Bright is the principal speaker at the great "Reform" meetings that are being held in England, Ireland and Scotland. The excitement seems to be great. The last monster meeting was at Manchester.
